Serving the Lord means being completely devoted in all service to the Lord and His people. It means obeying and enjoying our relationship with God as our Heavenly Father. To serve the Lord with our whole being means that the spirit, soul, and body all participate in the service to the Lord. All believers are called on to serve the Lord.

Setting the Lord's Table is truly an honor and blessing. Please contact Jean Zeinert at (920) 722-2662 and let her know if you would like to serve.

THE APOSTLES' CREED

This month we continue our consideration of the First Article of the Apostles' Creed, with special focus on question 102.

102. Why do we say, "God has made me"?

God created the first man and woman, and God has created each one of us.

Martin Luther continues his explanation of the First Article of the Creed by asking the question:

Why do we say, "God has made me"?

He answers this question with the statement:

God created the first man and woman, and God has created each one of us.

For scriptural support of this statement, he provides the following:

Genesis 1:28 – God blessed them. And God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over every living thing that moves on the earth."

Psalms 139:13 – You formed my inward parts; You knitted me together in my mother's womb.

Jeremiah 1:5 – Before I formed you in the womb I knew you.

God made us. All of us. Everyone of us from Adam and Eve, right down to the baby born minutes ago. Every part of us was made by Him. As He says to His prophet Jeremiah, "Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you."

God designed us, had a plan for our lives, knew us personally even before we were conceived in our mother's womb. Our development in the womb was by His design, guided by His hand every step along the way. As a sculptor forms a statue, God molded and shaped us. He even made the clay with which we were formed!

The psalmist records, "You formed my inward parts; You knitted me together in my mother's womb." Think of a knitted garment. Each stitch is essential to the whole, each one carefully woven in a lengthy chain that is entirely connected together. That is the picture God gives in Psalm 139. God was intimately involved in our growth from a single cell to the complex beings we are by the time of our birth.

But God didn't stop there. He instructed Adam and Eve to continue the process of procreation, whereby He continues to mold and make new human beings, as He commanded them, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth."

It's interesting to note that God did not create human beings the same way He created the rest of the universe. For everything else, God simply spoke and the created things popped into existence. But with man, God was not content just to speak; He molded, crafted, got His fingers into the mud, and shaped mankind after His own image, which implies that we are not merely physical beings, but spiritual ones as well, for therein lies the image of God: in holiness and righteousness, which is also why He sent His Son, so that we might be redeemed, body and soul. †

Humbly in His service,
Rev. Steven S. Billings

“Life and Forgiveness From Above” 1 Kings 17:17-24

¹⁷ After this the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became ill. And his illness was so severe that there was no breath left in him. ¹⁸ And she said to Elijah, “What have you against me, O man of God? You have come to me to bring my sin to remembrance and to cause the death of my son!” ¹⁹ And he said to her, “Give me your son.” And he took him from her arms and carried him up into the upper chamber where he lodged, and laid him on his own bed. ²⁰ And he cried to the LORD, “O LORD my God, have you brought calamity even upon the widow with whom I sojourn, by killing her son?” ²¹ Then he stretched himself upon the child three times and cried to the LORD, “O LORD my God, let this child's life^[a] come into him again.” ²² And the LORD listened to the voice of Elijah. And the life of the child came into him again, and he revived. ²³ And Elijah took the child and brought him down from the upper chamber into the house and delivered him to his mother. And Elijah said, “See, your son lives.” ²⁴ And the woman said to Elijah, “Now I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is truth.”

In the Name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Where there's sin, there's death. Where there's death, there's sin. The two always go together. Of that you can be sure. This widow's theology was spot on. She sees death, she thinks sin.

Oh, we often believe otherwise. That's what Satan wants us to believe. That's the lie he whispers into our ears or these days even trumpets into our faces via the media or social media. That our sin won't cause death - oh no, no! - but give us life. That if you only do this, if you only take that, if only you indulge a little, your life will improve. So, a few tasty words spoken, a little lust satisfied, a bit of “do unto others because they've done unto me” . . .

No. The wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23). The widow was right about that. So, she blasts Elijah: You have come to me to bring my sin to remembrance and to cause the death of my son!

What sin, I wonder. What sin was weighing heavily on her mind? What sin had she so buried, so locked away, so explained away with a thousand excuses, that was now coming back to haunt her? Because she couldn't deal with it, she couldn't make it go away, she couldn't make it okay no matter how hard she tried. All she had done with her efforts was make it fester and grow . . . and now it was back again. Haunting her. Crushing her.

That's you again, isn't it? For what sins are weighing heavy on your mind? What words you wish you had never spoken, deeds you wish you could take back, what friend you wish you had never betrayed - those thoughts and desires that keep slithering back into your hearts and minds . . .

Indeed, this is our life “from below.” Sin and death. The death of friends, of family, of loved ones - your death. Sin and death, from which we cannot set ourselves free.

But as right as the widow was, she was also wrong - dead wrong. Elijah was not there to cause the death of her son - but to bring life to the widow! Life in the forgiveness of her sins. Life in the God of life who brings life “from above.”

So, Elijah takes her son - her only son - and prays to the God of life for life, and life is given from above. And the widow confesses: Now I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the Lord in your mouth is truth.

Again, I wonder: what word? Seems that Elijah wasn't just staying with this widow but preaching to her. And the word she now knew is truth was the word she doubted before; the word that her son's death caused her to disbelieve. For if where there's death, there's sin, and where there's sin, there's death - then also now she knows and believes this too: where there's life, there's forgiveness, and where there's forgiveness, there's life. The word of the Lord from Elijah of a forgiving God was indeed the truth! And so not only her son, but the widow too, is given life from above.

And you too. For you, hounded by sin and surrounded by death. For you who doubt and worry and fear. For you who have tried to manage and deal with your sin, only to have those skeletons explode out of the closet at the worst times . . . This forgiveness is for you too.

For Elijah is still preaching forgiveness and pointing to the God of forgiveness for us sinners today. For he points us to Jesus - God come down from above to us here below. For the Elijah who was to come, the second Elijah, John the Baptist, points us to Jesus with the confession: Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world (John 1:29)! And then Elijah shows up again on the Mount of Transfiguration with Jesus and talks about what? Jesus' exodus. His death and resurrection. His victory over sin and death for us.

Elijah points us to Jesus, as all good and faithful prophets do.

To Jesus, who laid in our tomb three days, laying not just on one young man, but in the place of all humanity, to give life to all in His resurrection.

To Jesus, who was poured upon you three times in water and the Word in Holy Baptism, to give life to you in the forgiveness of your sins.

To Jesus, conquering death, conquering sin; conquering sin, conquering death. For the two always go together.

And this Word is truth. The Word of the Lord that proclaims to you I forgive you all your sins. Those not your pastor's words, but your Lord's words. Truthful words. Words that do what they say. For Jesus' tomb is empty. And so will yours be. For where there's forgiveness, there's life, and where there's life, there's forgiveness. For you.

The widow saw and believed. Blessed are you who have not seen, yet have believed (John 20:29).

The widow then magnified the Lord who had done wonderful things for her. And so do you, using the words of that other widow whose only son was raised from the dead for the life of the world.

The widow praised the Lord of life. And so will you now sing your Te Deum Laudamus: "We praise you, O Lord, we acknowledge you to be the Lord." Good theology. Spot on.

And the widow and her son then - like they had for so many days already - ate and drank. They continued to eat the food that God provided for them: the flour and oil that never ran out. And so too you and I who have been raised from the death of our trespasses and sins to a new life of faith and forgiveness. We too will now eat and drink the food that never runs out. Not the flour and oil, but the Body and Blood that our Lord provides for us. The food from above that gives us life from above. Life now and life forever. Te Deum Laudamus: "We praise you, O Lord!"

In the Name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

What an exciting time to be a servant in the LORD's harvest.
Thanks for being a part of the Trinity family.

Stewardship Message

The Board of Stewardship has frequently encouraged your use of time, talent, and gifts. And the Board has suggested that God expects you to use these gifts that he has given you for His purpose in serving others.

Thinking about what I just said, thoughts come to mind of, how do I know what God wants me to do and when to do it? How can I determine when He is leading me to act on His behalf? How do I overcome my fear of speaking to others to do what He is asking me to do?

The truth is that we do not spend much time with God on a personal level. If we don't talk to Him daily, pray to Him daily and listen to Him through scripture, we cannot know what He wants us to do. Why is it that we allow so many things to take precedence over time with God, yet we proclaim that God is always with us. But are we always with Him?

2 Timothy 3: 16-17 reads: All scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work. John 8:31-32 reads: Jesus said, if you abide in my word, you are truly my disciple, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free. Finally, Deuteronomy 6:6-7 reads: And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down and when you rise.

God promises to bless those who read His word, and He promises to hear those who pray. He is waiting for you to seek that personal relationship with Him so that He can equip you for His purpose. You will learn what, where and when He is asking you to do something on His behalf.

Each day we live is a gift from God. And He gives each of us the same amount of time each day: 1,440 minutes. Will you use just 14 of those minutes, just 1% of the time the Lord has given you each day, to read the bible and pray? If you get the full 8 hours of sleep the Doctor recommends each night, that leaves 112 waking hours per week. Will you spend just 1% of those hours coming to church each week to worship the Lord?

We would like to remind you of the daily devotional with Pastor Billings on Trinity's website. It is available to you 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Very meaningful devotional that speaks to you each day.

I leave you today with Psalm 46:10 - Be still and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.

Ask for God's leading in your walk with Him and He will answer. Blessings upon your faith walk!

From the Board of Elders

Important change to Trinity's Elder zones.

Utilizing a different approach, zones were developed by geographic location instead of alphabetically, with the assigned Elder living near their zone. In your mailbox you will find a letter identifying your Elder and a mini directory with contact information of others living in your zone. Our prayer is that the new zones will make it easier for Trinity neighbors to visit and get better acquainted. Please check you own information and contact your Elder if anything is incorrect, missing or out of date.
