‡ Stewardship Lesson ‡

Matt. 17:8 – “And when they lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only.” Jesus is enough. Moses and Elijah point to Jesus and are happy to fade into the background. With our eyes focused on Him – and Him alone – the rest of our lives come into focus. He is primary; all else is secondary. When that order is right in our lives, things truly fall into place.

Accreditation Help Needed

Why is accreditation important:

1. Assess the quality of academic programs at institutions of education
2. Create a culture of continuous improvement of academic quality and stimulate a general raising of standards among educational institutions

3. Involve faculty and staff comprehensively in institutional evaluation and planning
4. Establish criteria for professional certification and licensure and for upgrading courses offering such preparation

However, we need additional help from our Trinity family. Below are the accreditation standards and people currently assigned to the standard:

The accreditation process is divided into seven standards:

Accreditation will be completed by July 2021

- Standard 1 – Purpose – Pastor GeRue*
- Standard 2 – Relationships – Caitlin Vanden Bloomer*, Ms. Nina*, Polly Harrmann
- Standard 3 – Leadership – Elizabeth Bahrns*, Liz Kamprath
