✠ Stewardship Lesson ✠

Romans 10:15a – “And how are they to preach unless they are sent?” Each week in the Lord's House, the Word goes out to us. Indeed, every day and all around the world, the Word goes out wherever it is preached and read. This brings us great joy, but even more joy is derived from realizing that God has blessed us with being part of this sending of the Word. From the blessings God gives us, we return a portion to Him in the Church for His work. And thus we are doubly blessed. We receive the Word, and we get to send it forth to others.

WE ENCOURAGE EVERYONE TO USE THE HYMNAL TO HELP CUT OUR PAPER COSTS.

To Members of Trinity Lutheran Church and School

August 30, 2022

As many of you know the carpet in the Sanctuary and the roof over the Sanctuary is going to be replaced. The carpet project will take place the last week in October and the roof project to begin early November and completed in the mid to end of November. In addition, due to the very poor condition of the rubber, roofs over the gym and the old school section need to be replaced. Those roofs will also be replaced and take place in the spring of 2023.

Your cooperation and patience to adapt to some of the logistics of parking and construction equipment that will be present during these projects will be greatly appreciated.

We have been blessed with the foresight of several members to make arrangements to fund these projects, along with the contributions donated over the past several years by many congregational members. With that said, I had requested to raise an additional $20,000 to be donated to these above projects to challenge the congregation to share in the cost which, in the end, will greatly help with the bottom line of Trinity's budget at the end of the fiscal year. We have not yet achieved that goal, but I am confident that the Lord will "Give us this Day, our daily Bread".

Thank you,

Blaine R. Henkel – President of Trinity Lutheran Church and School

Trinity Lutheran School

“Disciple Simon Peter”

Matthew 10:1–4; 4:18–19; 16:13–18

In school, we learn about numbers. As we increase in age and grade level, we go from starting to count numbers to using numbers in some challenging ways in mathematics classes. Numbers are interesting and important.

Numbers are also important in the Bible. One of the Bible’s favorite numbers is the number 12. Jacob had 12 sons who became the 12 family groups of the children of Israel. There were several times when God’s leaders and prophets set up monuments of 12 stones or offered 12 sacrifices.

How many disciples did Jesus first choose to follow Him? 12! In the next 12 weeks, we are going to meet each of those 12 disciples and learn how God used them to make other disciples. Matthew’s list of disciples begins with “Simon, who is called Peter” (Matt. 10:2).

Jesus called disciples from different backgrounds and different places. Jesus chose common people to be His disciples. Peter was a fisherman when Jesus called him. Jesus said that Peter would no longer catch fish, but he would now follow Jesus to invite others to follow Him.

All of the disciples were sinful human beings. Peter’s bold and brash personality sometimes got him into trouble. Peter almost drowned when he looked away from Jesus and saw a wave coming toward him. Peter fell asleep in the garden when Jesus asked him to stay awake and pray. Peter said he would never deny Jesus, and then he denied Jesus three times. When Jesus was on the cross, Peter was among the disciples who were hiding because they were afraid that they also might be arrested for following Jesus. Peter also listened to Jesus and saw Jesus’ miracles.

Peter believed that Jesus was the Messiah that had been promised (Mark 8:29). Peter was one of three disciples who saw the glory of Jesus at His transfiguration. Peter was one of the disciples who saw that Jesus’ tomb was empty. Jesus showed Peter and the other disciples that He was indeed alive.

Peter was chosen to be the spokesperson for the disciples when the Holy Spirit came on Pentecost. Peter followed Jesus’ command to make disciples of all nations. Peter preached about Jesus in Jerusalem and other places. The Holy Spirit inspired Peter to write a letter to suffering Christians that is part of the Bible. Peter was a martyr — he was killed for being a disciple of Jesus and a proclaimer of Jesus’ death and resurrection.

Baptized to make disciples of all nations, we, too, can be willing to suffer for Jesus and tell others about the Jesus we know from the Bible.

Dear Jesus, thank You that the forgiveness given to denying Peter is also the forgiveness given to us. Thank You that the proof of the resurrection given to Peter is also given through Your Word to us. Give us the boldness of Peter to confess You as our Savior and to be Your disciples for life. Amen.
