Out of faithfulness to our Lord's Word and in love for all those who desire to commune, we practice closed communion. Our altar is open to those baptized Christians who confess oneness with us in doctrine, are communicant members of our congregation or a sister congregation of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, and are not under church discipline in another congregation. If you are not a member of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, please speak to one of the pastors before approaching the altar.

✠ Stewardship ✠

Sixth Sunday after Pentecost

Luke 10:40b – "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to serve alone?" Martha is doing the right thing but in the wrong order. Her service to the Lord is good, but she has let it get ahead of hearing His Word. Mary has placed the Word first, which is good. Is there any doubt that she will rise once she has heard the Word and get to serving as well? Isn't that what hearing the Word always leads us to do? We listen, then respond. We believe, and thus we act!

“Mary Magdalene” John 20: 1-2; 10-18

In Jesus' † Name. Amen.

Except for Mary, the mother of our Lord, no other woman in the New Testament receives the attention from the Evangelists that Mary Magdalene does. Magdalene is not her last name, but rather a description, an adjective. It is like the name “Jesus Christ,” with “Christ” being a description of who Jesus is. He is the Christ, the Messiah. But it is even more like the name: Joseph of Arimathea, without the “of.” She is called Magdalene because she came from a town called Magdala, which is near Capernaum on the Sea of Galilee. Jesus would have gone through that town many times during his time near the Sea of Galilee. Andrew, Peter, James, and John would have grown up and worked near there.

But Mary is not known primarily because of where she came from, but for what the Lord did for her and later what she would do for the disciples. Both Mark and Luke record that Jesus cast out seven demons from her and that afterward she became a follower of Jesus and supported His journeys from her own means (Mk 16:9, Lk 8:2-3). However, all four Gospels record that she was the first one to whom Jesus appeared after His resurrection, and she was the one who announced the resurrection to the Apostles.

For today, let's just consider the accounts that mention her by name. Although two Gospels mention the exorcism as a parenthetical, almost a brushing remark, this is really a significant event in her life. She was burdened by the devil and evil spirits in a real, tangible way that hurt her and made her life miserable. Jesus stepped into her life and relieved her of this pain and suffering by casting out those seven demons. This is representative of our life before coming to faith in Jesus, and even a fitting example of how we struggle and suffer with sin even after becoming Christians.

We don't normally stop and think about non-Christians this way and we definitely don't typically think about un-baptized babies this way, but this is the reality. It is clearly taught in Scripture and confessed in our Lutheran Confessions. Prior to coming to faith, a person, no matter how old or how young, is by nature, at odds with God. Jesus says to Nicodemus, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born again he cannot see the kingdom of God” (John 3:3). This means that everyone born according to nature, is brought into this world at odds with the kingdom of God—born in sin. Our Confessions clearly say that “Since the fall of Adam, all human beings who are born in the natural way are conceived and born in sin. This means that from birth they are full of evil lusts and inclinations and cannot by nature possess true fear of God and true faith in God....this same innate disease and original sin is truly sin and condemns to God's eternal wrath all who are not in turn born anew through baptism and the Holy Spirit.” This is the serious truth about sin and about those outside the Christian Church. They are apart from God, at odds with God, even against God. This is how we all were before coming to the faith and being Baptized.

Baptism is no light matter. It actually makes Christians. It drowns the old and gives birth to the new. It establishes a saving relationship with God. It changes the life of the person; they even act differently.

St. Mary's exorcism by our Lord is a picture of baptism. The devils are cast out and faith in Christ is established. Mary believed that Jesus was the Christ and her life after the exorcism was consistent with that. She followed Him, loved Him, supported His work out of her means, followed Him to the cross, came early to His tomb to care for His body, conversed with the risen Lord, and took that message of resurrection and hope back to the disciples.

That is what Christians do. This is the story of your life in Christ. You are born anew in the waters of Holy Baptism. You have been exorcised of the devil and all his works. You believe in Jesus as your Savior, having faith implanted in you by the Holy Spirit. You were set on the path of the Christian life, hearing and learning God's Word. All of you are at some point on that road, You are being nurtured and brought up in that faith. You continue this throughout life by coming to church, surrounding yourself with Christian family and friends, praying, reading Scripture, doing good works, helping your neighbor, confessing your sin, receiving forgiveness, and passing the message of salvation on to those God has placed around you. Amen.

LUTHERAN WORLD RELIEF QUILT AND KIT MINISTRY

It is that time of year again when our hearts and minds are turned to remembering those neighbors who are less fortunate. For more than 75 years LWR has responded to war, disasters, and emergencies by turning the compassion of quilters and school and health kit makers into tangible items that meet urgent needs and offer glimpses of hope for families experiencing crisis. Your Trinity Ladies Aid/LWML has organized this drive here at Trinity for many years. Please pray about this and if so moved we would ask you to consider donating items for the school kits or personal care kits. Your generosity will certainly be a blessing to the receiving individuals and blessed by Him. We have completed an inventory of items we had already collected last year or during the interim. The following need numbers take this into consideration.

Our goal is to make 125 school kits and 125 personal care kits. Our dedicated quilters are nearing their goal of 50 twin size tied quilts.

To complete 125 personal care/health kits we will need the following:

- * 34 bath size (4.5 oz) bars of soap in wrapper
- * 31 adult size toothbrushes in the original package

To complete 125 school kits we will need the following:

- * 107 small hand held pencil sharpeners
- * 97 blunt scissors
- * 70 unsharpened, #2 pencils with attached erasers
- * 332 black or blue ballpoint pens
- * 86 - rulers 30cm

Please place your donated items on the back counter in the Small Fellowship Hall.

We will be assembling the kits during our August meeting, August 19 @ 6:30 PM. All are welcome If you would like to help assemble kits in the Large Fellowship Hall.

THANK YOU FOR PARTNERING WITH US TO SERVE OUR LORD BY SERVING OUR NEIGHBORS.
