† Stewardship †

John 20:16 – “Jesus said to her, ‘Mary.’” Jesus is risen from the dead, is the Victor over sin, and even calls us by name. He still calls us His friends and brothers and means to bring us through death to join Him in His resurrection. Christ is risen, He is risen indeed!

HOLY COMMUNION

Out of faithfulness to our Lord's Word and in love for all those who desire to commune, we practice closed communion. Our altar is open to those baptized Christians who confess oneness with us in doctrine, are communicant members of our congregation or a sister congregation of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod and are not under church discipline in another congregation. If you are not a member of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, please speak to one of the pastors before approaching the altar.

FACILITY ISSUES – CONTACT:

If you have any questions, concerns, or suggestions about facility issues in the church and school buildings, please send an email to Property@TrinityMenasha.com and a member of the Board of Properties will get back to you.

Trinity Veteran’s Plaque

Trinity has a plaque for men and women who have served in our Armed Services. If you would like to add your name and branch of service to the plaque, contact All-Sport Trophy & Engraving, Jon Vanderheyden at (920) 722-0146. The cost is $8.00. Jerry Maynard will affix your plaque to the board.

It must be Spring!!

It's time to plan for the Irish Road Rummage sale April 25th & 26th. Betsy Meverden will again be hosting a "Spring Cleaning" rummage sale on Mary Lane. All profits will be for the Boiler fund. Helpers to sort, tag and organize clean sellable items will be needed. Collectables, crafts, household & workshop items, nicknacks, clothing, etc. will be welcome. You may contact for more information and drop off times.

Cookies will also be needed for refreshments.

Psalm 19:1 - 11

<sup>1</sup>Preserve me, O God, for in you I take refuge. <sup>2</sup>I say to the LORD, "You are my Lord; I have no good apart from you."

<sup>3</sup>As for the saints in the land, they are the excellent ones, in whom is all my delight.

<sup>4</sup>The sorrows of those who run after another god shall multiply; their drink offerings of blood I will not pour out or take their names on my lips.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD is my chosen portion and my cup; you hold my lot. <sup>6</sup>The lines have fallen for me in pleasant places; indeed, I have a beautiful inheritance.

<sup>7</sup>I bless the LORD who gives me counsel; in the night also my heart instructs me. <sup>8</sup>I have set the LORD always before me; because he is at my right hand, I shall not be shaken.

<sup>9</sup>Therefore my heart is glad, and my whole being rejoices; my flesh also dwells secure.

<sup>10</sup>For you will not abandon my soul to Sheol, or let your holy one see corruption.

<sup>11</sup>You make known to me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy; at your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

Alleluia! Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Have you ever had a feeling of dread that took over your whole body? An enormous sadness that made you feel like never getting out of bed again? One might imagine this was how the two Mary's felt as they approached the tomb of Jesus that first Easter morning.

Just a couple of days ago, they had great hope that Jesus was their Savior, but now He's dead. He died on the cross, and His body lay in the tomb. There's no room for joy and happiness, is there?

However, what if Jesus' death wasn't the end of the story? What if His death was a means to victory? That sounds silly, doesn't it? But that's precisely what had to happen; Jesus had to become the sacrificial lamb to die in your place upon the cross, to rest in your grave, so that you can be forgiven and given everlasting life.

And so, as the Mary's approach the tomb of Jesus, the angel's words turn their sorrow into joy. He says, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. He is not here, for he has risen, as he said" (Matt. 28:5-6).

Returning to our original question, have you ever had one of those feelings of dread that took over your whole body? But in an instant, your dread and sadness were instead turned into joy? Because this is what happened for the Mary's! It's also what our psalm today looked forward to as the psalmist wrote, "Therefore my heart is glad, and my whole being rejoices; my flesh also dwells secure" (Psalm 16:9). Meaning your body, soul and life can rejoice because Jesus lives, and because He lives, you live not only today, but you will live with Him and be in His presence forever.

If you ever have one of those dreadful days of sadness, remember the joy of today. Remember how Jesus died on the cross for your sins, and then permit these words to turn your sadness into joy: "Alleluia! Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia!"

PRAYER

Risen Lord Jesus, thank You for defeating sin and death, through Your death on the cross and in Your resurrection. When our hearts feel heavy, comfort us with Your promises of victory over the trials and tribulations of this world. In Your name we pray. Amen.
