CHRISTMAS EVE

THE Nativity of our Lord

Candlelight Communion Service

TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH AND SCHOOL, MENASHA, WI
What is the connection between Christmas, carols, candlelight and Communion?

In the first place, people in Bible times regarded the dusk following sunset to be the beginning of the new day. Liturgical thinking, following the Bible practice, begins a holiday the evening before. All the more in the case of Christmas, where it is clear that the Christ was born at night and the announcement made by the angels was in darkness.

Carols are associated with Christmas and they indeed have originated with the medieval Christmas celebration. Carols, strictly speaking, are songs that celebrate Christmas events sung to a tune in dance meter. It is believed that carols were originally sung by folk dancers who held hands and danced in a circle. It has been claimed that the first carol was the “Gloria in Excelsis” sung by the angels as they danced in a circle in heaven on the first Christmas Eve. In French “carol” is used interchangeably with “noel.” Unlike hymns (songs of praise to God), carols are not “church music;” but those with sound doctrinal content serve as a joyful addition to Christmas worship.

Candlelight is associated with this service because in earlier centuries it was the only time Holy Communion was celebrated at night. The custom for many centuries was to worship in the day when there was light enough to see. But this special exception was made for the midnight celebration of Jesus’ birth. The words from St. John’s Gospel were recalled: “This was the true Light which was coming into the world which enlightens every man.”

Communion was seen as the only fitting way to celebrate the birth of our Lord for many centuries. In fact, “Christmas” comes from the term Christ’s Mass, the “mass” being the service of Holy Communion celebrated in honor of Christ’s birth. Those who think of Holy Communion as primarily a memorial of Jesus’ death might not see the connection between Jesus’ birth and the Sacrament. However, Christmas is the celebration of God becoming man in Jesus Christ. He Who became flesh to redeem us body and soul gives His body with the bread. The two lit candles on every Communion altar point to this truth, that in Holy Communion Christ’s human nature makes it possible for us to receive His body and blood, and His Divine nature makes it possible for us to receive it at every Christian altar wherever the Sacrament is celebrated according to His institution. The Christmas myth that St. Nicholas brings gifts to all good children in one night was inspired by the Christian truth that the Savior blesses His people with eternal grace in the Christmas Communion.
Let us go even unto Bethlehem
To see this thing which the Lord hath made known unto us.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN - It Came upon the Midnight Clear - LSB 366, st. 1-3

1. It came upon the mid-night clear, That glorious song of old,
   From angels bending near the earth To touch their harps of gold:
   “Peace on the earth, good-will to all, From heav’n’s all-gracious king,”
   The world in solemn stillness lay To hear the angels sing.

2. Still through the cloven skies they come With peaceful wings unfurled,
   And still their heav’n-ly music floats O’er all the wea-ry world.
   Above its sad and low-ly plains They bend on hover-ing wing,
   And ever o’er its ba-bel sounds The bless-ed angels sing.

3. All you, beneath your heavy load, By care and guilt bent low,
   Who toil a-long a drea-ry way With painful steps and slow:
   Look up, for gold-en is the hour, Come swift-ly on the wing,
   The Prince was born to bring you peace; Of Him the angels sing.
INTROIT

Psalm 2:1-2, 4-6; antiphon: Liturgical Text

P When all was still, and it was midnight,
your almighty Word, O Lord, descended from the royal throne.

C Why do the nations rage and the peoples plot in vain?

P The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD and against his anointed.

C He who sits in the heavens laughs;
the Lord holds them in derision.

P Then he will speak to them in his wrath,
and terrify them in his fury, saying,

C “As for me, I have set my King
on Zion, my holy hill.”

ALL: Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and will be forever. Amen.

P When all was still, and it was midnight,
your almighty Word, O Lord, descended from the royal throne.

FIRST LESSON

Isaiah 9:2-7

2 The people who walk in darkness Will see a great light; Those who live in a dark land, The light will shine on them. 3 Thou shalt multiply the nation, Thou shalt increase their gladness; They will be glad in Thy presence As with the gladness of harvest, As men rejoice when they divide the spoil. 4 For Thou shalt break the yoke of their burden and the staff on their shoulders, The rod of their oppressor, as at the battle of Midian. 5 For every boot of the booted warrior in the battle tumult, And cloak rolled in blood, will be for burning, fuel for the fire. 6 For a child will be born to us, a son will be given to us; And the government will rest on His shoulders; And His name will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace. 7 There will be no end to the increase of His government or of peace, On the throne of David and over his kingdom, To establish it and to uphold it with justice and righteousness From then on and forevermore. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will accomplish this.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God!
SECOND LESSON

Titus 2:11-14

11 For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men, 12 instructing us to deny ungodliness and worldly desires and to live sensibly, righteously and godly in the present age, 13 looking for the blessed hope and the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Christ Jesus; 14 who gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from every lawless deed and purify for Himself a people for His own possession, zealous for good deeds.
This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God!

RESPONSORY HYMN - Joy to the World - LSB 387, st. 1 & 3

1 Joy to the world, the Lord is come! Let earth receive her King;
   Let every heart prepare Him room.
1 No more let sins and sorrows grow Nor thorns infest the ground; He comes to make His blessings flow.
3 Far as the curse is found, Far as the curse is found, And heav’n and nature sing.
   And heav’n and nature sing, And heav’n and nature sing.
Now it came about in those days that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus, that a census be taken of all the inhabited earth. This was the first census taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. And all were proceeding to register for the census, everyone to his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David, in order to register, along with Mary, who was engaged to him, and was with child. And it came about that while they were there, the days were completed for her to give birth. And she gave birth to her first-born son; and she wrapped Him in cloths, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Thanks be to God!
RESPONSORY HYMN - Infant Holy, Infant Lowly - LSB 393

1 Infant holy, Infant lowly, For His bed a cattle stall;
2 Flocks were sleeping, Shepherds keeping Vigil till the morning new

Oxen lowing, Little knowing Christ the child is Lord of all,
Saw the glory, Heard the story, Tidings of a Gospel true.

Swiftly winging, Angels singing, Bells are ringing, Tidings bringing;
Thus rejoicing, Free from sorrow, Praises voicing, Greet the morrow:

Christ the child is Lord of all! Christ the child was born for you!
Christ the child is Lord of all! Christ the child was born for you!
And in the same region there were some shepherds staying out in the fields, and keeping watch over their flock by night. And an angel of the Lord suddenly stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them; and they were terribly frightened. And the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for behold, I bring you good news of a great joy which shall be for all the people; for today in the city of David there has been born for you a Savior, who is Christ the Lord. And this will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in cloths, and lying in a manger.” And suddenly there appeared with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, “Glory to God in the highest, And on earth peace among men with whom He is pleased.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Thanks be to God!
1 Hark! The herald angels sing, “Glor-y to the new-born King;
2 Christ, by high-est heav’n ad-ored, Christ, the ev-er-last-ing Lord,
3 Hail, the heav’n-born Prince of Peace! Hail, the Sun of Righ-teous-ness!

Peace on earth and mer-cy mild, God and sin-ners re-con-ciled!”
Late in time be-hold Him come, Off-spring of a vir-gin’s womb.
Light and life to all He brings, Ris’n with heal-ing in His wings.

Joy-ful, all ye na-tions, rise, Join the tri-umph of the skies;
Veiled in flesh the God-head see, Hail the in-car-nate De-i-ty!
Mild He lays His glo-ry by, Born that man no more may die,

With the an-gel-ic host pro-claim, “Christ is born in Beth-le-hem!”
Pleased as Man with man to dwell, Je-sus, our Im-man-u-el!
Born to raise the sons of earth, Born to give them sec-ond birth.

Refrain
Hark! The herald an-gels sing, “Glo-ry to the new-born King!”
15 And it came about when the angels had gone away from them into heaven, that the shepherds began saying to one another, “Let us go straight to Bethlehem then, and see this thing that has happened which the Lord has made known to us.” 16 And they came in haste and found their way to Mary and Joseph, and the baby as He lay in the manger. 17 And when they had seen this, they made known the statement which had been told them about this Child. 18 And all who heard it wondered at the things which were told them by the shepherds. 19 But Mary treasured up all these things, pondering them in her heart. 20 And the shepherds went back, glorifying and praising God for all that they had heard and seen, just as had been told them.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

Thanks be to God!

1 Gentle Mary laid her child Lowly in a manger;
There He lay, the Unde-filed, To the world a stranger.
Such a babe in such a place, Can He be the Savior?
Ask the saved of all the race Who have found His favor.

2 Angels sang about His birth, Wise Men sought and found Him;
Heaven's star shone brightly forth Glory all around Him.
Shepherds saw the wondrous sight, Heard the angels singing;
All the plains were lit that night, All the hills were ringing.

3 Gentle Mary laid her child Lowly in a manger;
He is still the Unde-filed But no more a stranger.
Son of God of humble birth, Beautiful the story;
Praise His name in all the earth; Hail the King of glory!

I believe in one God,
the Father Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth
and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only-begotten Son of God,
begotten of His Father before all worlds,
God of God, Light of Light,
very God of very God,
begotten, not made,
being of one substance with the Father,
by whom all things were made;
who for us men and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary and was made man;
and was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate.
He suffered and was buried.
And the third day He rose again according to the Scriptures and ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of the Father.
And He will come again with glory to judge both the living and the dead, whose kingdom will have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord and giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who spoke by the prophets.
And I believe in one holy Christian and apostolic Church,
I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins,
and I look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.  Amen

OFFERINGS PRESENTED TO THE CHRIST CHILD
PRAYERS

P With joy in response to the good news that a Savior is born, let us pray and praise God and join the heavenly song of angels saying, “Glory be to God on high.”

P Merciful and loving God, in the birth of Your Son You gave peace on earth. Grant that Your holy Christian Church may rejoice in the gladness of our redemption and treasure all these things in our hearts, that we may join the heavenly song of angels saying,

Give hope to the lonely and shut-in of our parish. Grant peace and healing to the sick and suffering and those in the hospital. Guide the journeys of those who travel. Comfort those who mourn. Create a new and contrite heart in the erring, and faith in those who have not heard the good news. May Your love to us flow through our lives and be a blessing to others so that with us they may join the heavenly song of angels saying,

C Glory be to God on high.

P Lord God, make a manger in the hearts of all who come to Your altar this day, that they may have a share in the life of Him who came to share our humanity and join the heavenly song of angels saying,

C Glory be to God on high.

P In the birth of Your Son, O God, You have clothed us with eternal life. We remember with thanksgiving all those who have died in the faith. Unite our voices with theirs that we may join the heavenly song of angels saying,

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

The sign of the cross ✞ may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.

In the name of the Father and of the ✞ Son and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.
I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord, and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

Silence for reflection on God's Word and for self-examination.

O almighty God, merciful Father, I, a poor, miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserved Your temporal and eternal punishment. But I am heartily sorry for them and sincerely repent of them, and I pray You of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be gracious and merciful to me, a poor, sinful being.

Upon this your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God unto all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ✞ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.
The Lord be with you. 2 Timothy 4:22
And with your spirit.

Lift up your hearts. [Colossians 3:1]
We lift them up unto the Lord.

Let us give thanks unto the Lord, our God. [Psalm 136]
It is good and right so to do.

The Proper Preface appropriate to the day or season is spoken:

It is truly good, right and salutary . . . evermore praising You and saying:

SANCTUS Isaiah 6:3; Matthew 21:9

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might:
Heaven and earth are full of Your glory.
Hosanna. Hosanna. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

LORD'S PRAYER Matthew 6:9-13

Lord, remember us in Your kingdom and teach us to pray:
Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven;
give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses
  as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever.
Amen.
THE WORDS OF OUR LORD

Matthew 26:26-28; Mark 14:22-24

Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night when He was betrayed, took bread, and when He had given thanks, He broke it and gave it to the disciples and said: “Take, eat; this is My ☩ body, which is given for you. This do in remembrance of Me.”

In the same way also He took the cup after supper, and when He had given thanks, He gave it to them, saying: “Drink of it, all of you; this cup is the new testament in My ☩ blood, which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.”

The peace of the Lord be with you always.
Amen.

John 20:19

The beginning of the Holy Gospel according to St. John.
(All meditate on the mystery of the Word made flesh.)

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
2 He was in the beginning with God. 3 All things came into being by Him, and apart from Him nothing came into being that has come into being. 4 In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it. 6 There came a man, sent from God, whose name was John. 7 He came for a witness, that he might bear witness of the light, that all might believe through him. 8 He was not the light, but came that he might bear witness of the light. 9 There was the true light which, coming into the world, enlightens every man. 10 He was in the world, and the world was made through Him, and the world did not know Him. 11 He came to His own, and those who were His own did not receive Him. 12 But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, even to those who believe in His name, 13 who were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. 14 And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father, full of grace and truth.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
Thanks be to God!
