

RACHEL MALONEY
3rd - 4th Grade Teacher

Hello! I am Rachel Maloney. I am the 3rd-4th grade homeroom teacher. I also have the privilege of teaching music and 3rd-8th grade writing. Trinity has been my home since 2014.

It is my philosophy that students learn in a safe and warm environment. My classroom is set up to feel inviting and open for friendly discussion. Students will learn best when they are at their most comfortable level. Academics are very important. Students must try their best when doing work. Not every student is cut out to be the A student but if they are trying their hardest that is what really counts. Effort now in class work will help shape effort in their future careers.

I am a graduate of UW Madison with a Bachelor's degree in Communications. Several years later I attended Marian University's adult education program and received my Teacher's License in December 2011. Teaching was a calling for me and has become a passion. I am a member of Trinity Lutheran Church in Neenah. I was baptized there and received a Lutheran education at their school and Fox Valley Lutheran High School.

I am a proud parent of a son named William. My husband and I look forward to adding to our family and having our son grow up in a Christian environment.

Trinity Menasha has become a home for me and is hopefully a home for many families and their children as they enter our doors.
